The Undersigned .....

After having carefully read the regulations of the event and having acknowledged the difficulties of the course, and being aware of the risks to personal safety connected with the race, by signing this document I declare that:

- I shall take with me, for the entire duration of the race, all of the mandatory equipment and I shall exonerate the organizers in the event of any accident or illness resulting from any lack of the mandatory equipment;
- I am aware that the mandatory equipment is defined as the following items:
  - rucksack or waist bag
  - crampons
  - water reserve (minimum 1 litre)
  - cup or other container suitable for drinking at the refreshment points
  - food supplies
  - two working headlamps with spare batteries
  - survival blanket
  - whistle
  - jacket with hood designed to withstand bad weather conditions at high altitude
  - running trousers or leggings (at least to below the knee)
  - hat or bandana
  - mobile phone
- I accept that checks for the mandatory equipment will be performed at any time during the race and I am aware that the lack of any of the mandatory equipment amongst the gear that I am carrying during the race can lead to my disqualification and I further accept the final judgment of the members of the race organization that are responsible for these checks;
- I exonerate the race organizer, Courmayeur Trailers, the race director and the course director from any responsibility for damages to property and persons, including personal injury and/or death.
- Furthermore I declare that I shall hold all and exclusive responsibility for any damage that I may cause to third parties or to third party properties.

I declare on my honor that:

- I do not use doping substances;
- That I am aware of the length and of the specificity of the event which takes place in the mountains, in possible difficult climatic conditions (nighttime, cold, wind, rain or snow), and that under these conditions it is necessary to have an appropriate level of training and a real ability to be independent and that I have such training and ability
- I am informed of the medical counter-indications that concern me and that, as a result, I free the organization from any type of responsibility concerning medical problems that I could have during the race.

I authorize VDA Trailers S.s.d.r.l. to treat my personal data exclusively for purposes that are instrumental to its activity and based on principles of honesty and lawfulness in accordance with Italian Law 675 of the 31/12/1996. The data cannot be transferred to any other body. It is understood that at any time I can ask for removal of my data. I expressly renounce any claim to any copyright on pictures taken during the race and in addition I renounce any appeal against the organizer and its authorized partners for the use of my image.
